

European – Southeast-Asian Experts “One Health in Action” Workshop

From OH Theory to Reality: Practical challenges, impact of OH initiatives, and gaps in research

13 - 15 October 2014, Hanoi, Vietnam

Objective

This workshop aims to deliberate through various case studies on the concept, impact and practical challenges of One Health initiatives in Southeast Asia, and identify gaps and needs for One Health Research

Scope: One Health Surveillance - EcoHealth – Antimicrobial resistance

Expected Outputs

- Policy note
- One Health research topics
- Consortium proposals to address H2020 EU calls

Keynote speakers:

Prof. Bruce Wilcox, Faculty of Public Health, Mahidol University, Thailand

Dr. François Roger, CIRAD, Head, Animal and Integrated Risk Management, Thailand

Dr. Esther Shelling, Swiss TPH, Deputy Head, Human and Animal Health Unit, Switzerland

Tentative Program

Day 1 - Monday 13th

08:30 Opening session
09:15 Keynote speakers
10:30 Plenary session 1: One Health Surveillance - 4 speakers
13:00 Brainstorming / workgroup session 1
15:30 Plenary session 2 (part 1): Ecohealth - 4 speakers
16:30 Conclusion of Day 1
17:00 Networking session and dinner

Day 2 - Tuesday 14th

08:30 Outputs from Day 1
09:00 Plenary session 2 (part 2): Ecohealth
10:30 Brainstorming / workgroup session 2
13:00 Plenary Session 3: Antibioresistance - 4 speakers
15:30 Brainstorming / workgroup session 3
16:30 Recommendations and Conclusion

Day 3 - am - Wednesday 15th

8:30 Feedback from working sessions
Presentation of H2020 topics
Recommendations and topic proposals
12:00 Conclusion and end of workshop

Day 3 - pm – Field Trip

Day 4 - Day 5: READI meeting

Organisers

Supported by

