

Future of Europe

In 2017, Christian political thinkers met in Budakeszi for a workshop. For two days, researchers, academics and doctoral students discussed Europe's biggest challenges and what to do for the future. Many of the participants not only gave speeches but also sent in their thoughts, which have been published below. The final manuscript will be published in 2022.

The whole publication is available HERE.